FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Event/Medical Cannabis/Healthcare/Education

PITTSBURGH – (January 24, 2018) –Legally Mine, the largest lawsuit protection company in the U.S., will sponsor a riverboat dinner cruise and fundraiser to kick off Compassionate Certification Centers’ World Medical Cannabis Conference & Expo (WMCC Expo) April 12-14, at the David L. Lawrence Convention Center in Pittsburgh.

The Gateway Clipper Cruise will sail along the steel city’s famed Three Rivers, from 6:30 – 9:30 p.m., on Friday, April 13. The evening event is open to the public and provides an opportunity to socialize with some of the most recognized leaders and entrepreneurs in the cannabis industry.

Tickets start at $75 per person, on site tickets available for $100. The evening includes live music, entertainment, and a three-course dinner menu. A portion of the proceeds will benefit the Disabled American Veterans and Make a Wish foundations. For reservations visit www.compassionatecertificationcenters.com.

Legally Mine provides specialized legal entity documents and structuring strategies to help business, medical, and dental professionals protect against lawsuits.

Leland McKay, educational instructor at Legally Mine, will keynote the Gateway Clipper Cruise. McKay has presented internationally and will discuss the importance of asset management and updated tax savings for medical cannabis providers and business professionals.

The second-annual WMCC Expo will feature hundreds of exhibitors and high-profile medical, financial, sports, and cannabis industry speakers. Nearly 6,000 attendees are expected at the WMCC Expo, including hundreds of exhibitors and high-profile medical, financial, sports and cannabis industry speakers.

Expo host Compassionate Certification Centers is raising the bar in patient-friendly medical cannabis care. The Pittsburgh-based company specializes in medical certifications, evaluations, and continued treatment guidance with locations throughout Pennsylvania.
